

Launched in 2011.

Unique platform for collaboration among individuals teaching business and human rights worldwide.

More than 300 members teaching business and human rights at 150 institutions in 40 countries.

Promotes and strengthens business and human rights education.

#TeachBHR

Teaching
BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS
Forum

Resources

- Discussion Board
- Teaching Workshops
- Syllabi Bank
- Teaching BHR Handbook (BHRHandbook.org)

2016

2015

Teach
BHR

Teaching
BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS
HANDBOOK

A project of the Teaching Business and Human Rights Forum

Teach BHR

Teaching BUSINESS AND HUMAN RIGHTS HANDBOOK

- BHRHandbook.org
- Resources for teaching common BHR topics
- Teaching Notes authored by Forum members
- Overview, Teaching Approaches, Key Questions, Teaching Resources

Teaching Notes

The following topics are common subjects taught in business and human rights courses. Members of the Teaching Business and Human Rights Forum have identified these issues as priority thematic areas for teachers.

General/Introductory

- Corporations “101”
- The “Business Case”
- Corporate Responsibility
- Introducing International Human Rights
- Introducing the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights

Business Practice

- Human Rights Due Diligence
- Human Rights Impact Assessment
- Grievance Mechanisms

Corporate Accountability

- Mandatory Human Rights Reporting
- OECD National Contact Point Complaints
- Advocacy
- Investors
- Litigation – ATS Jurisprudence
- Litigation – Duty of Care
- Multistakeholder Initiatives
- National Action Plans
- Treaty

Detailed Subjects

- Banks and Human Rights
- International Labor Rights
- Land Rights
- Mega-Sporting Events and Human Rights
- “Shared Value” and Human Rights
- Access to Water
- “Big Data” and Human Rights
- Environmental Impacts and Human Rights
- Freedom of Expression and the Right to Privacy
- Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- Trade Agreements and Human Rights